Translation Notes

Page 33 – Stew

Going by the color, the stew Miyamura likes is probably cream stew, a Western-style Japanese dish of meat and vegetables simmered in a thick creamy white soup.

Page 115-116 – Yama, Kawa, Hashi

Each of Shindou's name guesses incorporates one of these three kanji, which are relatively common in Japanese surnames. Yama means "mountain," kawa means "river," and hashi means "bridge."

Page 117 – Bump

This is most likely a reference to Bump of Chicken, an extremely popular J-rock band formed in 1994.

Page 136 – Pachi High

The first kanji character in Yasaka can also be read pachi.

Page 146 – Summer colds

Hori is referring to the Japanese proverb that says "Idiots catch cold in summertime." (Natsukaze wa baka ga hiku.)

Page 151 – Pocari

Pocari Sweat is a Japanese sports drink designed mainly to replenish electrolytes.
